

Please create original sentences for each of the following words, underlining the word in your sentence.

1. agitation (n.) a state of excitement, disturbance, or worry. The cancer diagnosis left Mike's family in a state of agitation.
2. ewer (n.) a large jug or pitcher with a wide mouth. The waiter filled our glasses with water he poured from a ewer.
3. ignoble (adj.) dishonorable; base; despicable. Janice made a life-altering mistake when she chose to marry that ignoble man.
4. indiscriminate (adj.) lacking discrimination or careful choice; random or promiscuous. By randomly selecting numbers from a hat, the teacher created the groups indiscriminately.
5. perpetual (adj.) eternal; permanent. *The universe exists in a state of perpetual motion.
The couple vowed to love each other perpetually.*
6. pious (adj.) having or expressing reverence for a god or gods; religious; devout. My aunt was an incredibly pious individual; she lived her entire life in devotion to God.
7. rapture (n.) the state of mind resulting from feelings of high emotion; joyous ecstasy. The Chocolate Decadence Cake left me in a state of rapture.
8. semblance (n.) outward appearance, especially without any inner substance or reality. The con artist arrived at the door of the unsuspecting couple with a semblance of friendliness; his true nature wouldn't be revealed until later when he stole their entire life's savings.
9. vengeance (n.) the act of or desire for taking revenge; retributive punishment. Seeking vengeance for the crime will not make your pain go away; it is better to forgive.
10. wretched (adj.) 1. in poor or pitiful circumstances. 2. characterized by or causing misery. The wretched orphan begged for money every day until the kind older woman took him in.
11. fiend (n.) a person who is extremely wicked, especially in being very cruel or brutal. Voldemort is a fiend of epic proportions.
12. coquette (n.) a woman who flirts. The coquette sought attention through her tight red dress and high-pitched laugh.
13. imprecation (n.) a malediction; curse. I shouted imprecations at my boyfriend after I caught him cheating.

14. paragon (n.) a model of excellence; pattern. Mother Theresa is the paragon of selflessness.
15. acquiesce (v.) to comply (with); assent (to) without protest. The team was so tired it completely acquiesced in the second half.
Soldiers acquiesce during boot camp, or else suffer the consequences!
16. propriety (n.) the quality or state of being appropriate, proper, or fitting. Asking his girlfriend's father for permission to propose was a necessary act of propriety for Jeff.
17. Greek Root. mania: "madness" mania, maniac, kleptomania, pyromania
Examples: mania [a mental illness]; maniac [an insane and dangerous person]; kleptomamia [an obsessive impulse to steal]; pyromania [an irresistible urge to start fires].
18. Latin Root. greg: "herd or flock"
Examples: gregarious [enjoying the company of others], congregation [a group of persons gathered for a common purpose], segregate [to set apart or be set apart from others or the main group], Gregarian [gregarious; belonging to the herd or common sort; common]